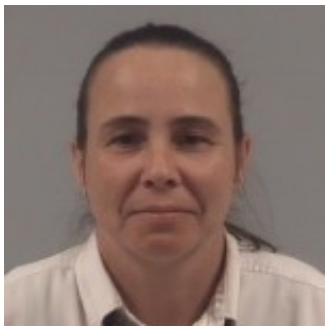
Employee Charged with Stealing Customers wallet

Employee Charged with Stealing Customers wallet



Constance Pruitt, 44, of North Pleasant-Coates Rd has been charged by the Johnston County Sheriff’s office with one count of larceny. The employee is accused of taking a wallet that was left behind at a convenience store at NC-210 and I-40.