Victor Woods, national speaker and author, recently spoke to the students at STAR Academy and the Academic Support Center.

Victor Woods, national speaker and author, recently spoke to the students at STAR Academy and the Academic Support Center.
His dynamic presentation, using examples from his own life experiences, challenged students to move forward, stay motivated and create opportunities for themselves. Mr. Woods also presented a training session for school system employees later in the afternoon.