Harnett Man Killed by Harnett Deputies Ruled Homicide by State Medical Examiner.

Harnett Man Killed by Harnett Deputies Ruled Homicide by State Medical Examiner.

According to papers released Monday, the shooting death of a Harnett County man has been ruled a Homicide by the State Medical Examiner's office. The incident took place in early November when there was an altercation between two deputies and John Livingston. No further information is available at this time.