Massive Search Underway in Coats For Missing Man

Massive Search Underway in Coats For Missing Man

A massive search is underway for a missing elderly man off of Live Oak Road in Coats, emergency officials are on scene searching for the man who was last seen yesterday. Crews from departments in Harnett County and Johnston are conducting a large ground search for the missing man. We will update as info becomes available.