

Congratulations to LaFayette Elementary

Congratulations to LaFayette Elementary for winning the first Elementary Battle of the Books! This event, coordinated by Jeff Pittman and the members of the media and technology team, was held at Triton High on March 24th. Eleven elementary schools competed in this 55 round competition and answered questions about all of the book selected for the elementary group.